VIDEO PRODUCTION

School of Art, Humanities, Social Sciences and Public Service

Program Description

The Video Production option is designed to prepare students for employment in commercial, industrial and educational settings as audiovisual technicians, video creators, video editors, and artists. Program graduates are prepared to provide for the operation of various equipment and software required to produce multimedia content. Students will acquire production skills in the areas of instructional graphics, video, audio recording, digital photography and interactive multimedia. Under supervision, students complete an internship experience in which they apply theoretical knowledge to workplace situations. Students may, under faculty supervision, create a substantial capstone project that reflects the skills they have learned in the program.

Career Opportunities

Career opportunities exist within in-house corporate audiovisual departments, production crews, educational institutions, and non-profit organizations as well as in advertising agencies and sound or video production houses. A large number of individuals working in the media field are self-employed content creators or freelancers working on a variety of creative and technical multimedia projects.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this program, students will be able to:

- Design, produce, and analyze media and messages such as presentations, videos, multimedia, graphics/print, photography and interactive multimedia.
- Manage a media production from concept to distribution.
- Communicate effectively and appropriately using vocabulary indicative to the technology.
- Design and create videos and still images for various platforms.
- Edit motion pictures using non-linear editing and motion graphics techniques and software.
- Edit and present still images using industry standard software and equipment.
- Effectively function with associates as a member of a visual communications production team and a production crew.
- Operate various types of standard and well as specialized media related equipment and software.
- Practice appropriate safety procedures inherent to the industry.
- Evaluate media production
